

The Mahoning Dispatch

VOL. XLIV. NO. 46.

CANFIELD, MAHONING COUNTY, OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1921.

$1.50 A YEAR. (Outside Ohio, $2.00)

ADVERTISING BRINGS RESULTS

When the columns of The Mahoning Dispatch are used, the advertiser has been verified by thousands of pleased patrons in past years. For the small advertiser, the classified column offers opportunities that none can afford to overlook.

Washingtonville

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Peller and daughter Ethel of Youngstown spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Augustine Peller.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner, Elmer Warner, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Feldhouse, Erna Culler, Mary Heintzelman, Fred Culler and Albert Spear were initiated into the Rebekah lodge in Leontonia last Tuesday night.

Deputy Sheriff of Columbiana county was in town Tuesday hunting dogs that were running loose without a license. He didn't find many to report.

Lee Mantzbaugh of Akron and Estelle Matzenbaugh of East Palestine were here over Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Matzenbaugh.

Albert Luxiell is among the pupils out of school with mumps.

The Valentine social in the M. E. Church basement Monday evening was largely attended. All report a good time.

Miss "Peggy" Foulkerton was honored Friday evening by a birthday gathering at her home. A large crowd of young associates were present and spent the evening in youthful games. The host was presented with many pretty birthday remembrances.

Mrs. Lee Bowker and daughter Mildred were Salem visitors Tuesday.

Edward Rowan and Ray Davis visited the 6th grade of the Salem school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morell Weikart were Salem visitors Tuesday.

Mary, Ruth and Bruce Keikart are confined to their home with mumps.

Parties from Youngstown moved into the J. W. Allen property on Main St.

Mrs. J. S. Davis visited the Salem hospital Monday to see her daughter.

Mrs. Morris Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Reese are both getting along nicely.

Mrs. Homer Heintzelman spent several days in Mineral Ridge with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller.

R. B. Maxwell is installing a Delco lighting system in his new home west of town.

Amos Groner spent several days this week with his mother in Columbiana.

Prof. J. L. Gray of Salem was in town Tuesday.

School was closed all day Tuesday. The teachers spent the day visiting other schools.

Mrs. Curtis Our of Alliance was a guest of Mrs. C. H. Weikart last Thursday.

Mrs. W. C. Weikart of Leontonia spent last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Weikart.

Mrs. David Weikart entertained at dinner Sunday Mrs. Lydia Boston, Mrs. Mary Betz, Mrs. Charly Roller and son Eugene. The social hours were much enjoyed.

Mrs. Herbert Smalley accompanied a party of Youngstown folk and attended a theatre in that city Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Teltow of Salem were Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Crumbecker and children of Salem spent Sunday at the country home of her parents.

Mrs. Wm. Croft of Lisbon was a Friday guest of Mrs. J. E. Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Weikart DeJana and children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis and daughter were entertained Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis at Leontonia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Roller were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. King in Salem.

Mrs. Lottie Smith and daughter Phyllis of East Liverpool spent several days the past week with her mother, Mrs. E. Burton, and sister, Mrs. Wm. Weikart.

Percy Teltow of Salem, long a resident of Washingtonville where he worked in the coal mines, now national statistician of the United Mine Workers of America, is being supported by the Ohio republican delegation in congress for secretary of labor in Harding's cabinet. Teltow declares he is not making any effort to secure the place but will accept should it be tendered him.

Miss Carrie Bertolotto of Cleveland was here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bertolotto, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. King spent Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Heron, west of town.

Mrs. Chas. Vignon was hostess last Wednesday evening to members of the Woman's Home Circle. A very social time was had. Music and needle work were the principal diversions.

Invited guests included Mrs. Robert Eyster. A delicious tray luncheon was served. Next Wednesday evening the club was invited to meet in the home of Mrs. Wm. Gabriel, Salem.

Mrs. Katherine Roller of Canton is visiting at the home of her sisters, Miss Clark and Miss Zimmerman.

A. Thomas and family and Wm. Thomas and family of Youngstown, Mr. and Mrs. Berk of Bridgeport, Conn. were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smalley.

E. Feicht of Salem bought the property and land of Joseph Tourdot on High street and will take possession as soon as vacated. Mr. Tourdot, his son Eugene and Victor Girard are planning a trip to France as soon as arrangements can be made.

Charles Moff and family of New Buffalo and Frank Getz of Youngstown visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Sunday.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran church next Sunday evening. Everybody welcome. Sunday school as usual Sunday morning at 9:15. The superintendent makes a special request for all members to be present.

Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning and evening conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. Staley. All invited to attend the services.

Mrs. Harvey Baker received word Monday morning of the death of her step-mother, Mrs. Trypena Marline, at her home near New Waterford. Funeral services were held from the late home Wednesday afternoon. Relatives here attended.

ISLAND

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weaver entertained Sunday Amos Martin and family, Mrs. Louisa Horst, Miss Mary Weaver, Abram Krieder, Henry and Leah Rahl, John Weaver and sisters Edna, Carrie and Martha.

Mrs. Martha Wisler and Mrs. D. R. Lehman spent Sunday afternoon with Misses May and Gay Roller.

Paul Calvin of Hiram spent several days the first of the week with his parents here.

Mrs. Menno Brubaker is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Detrow and daughter Erma spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shewalter and son Kenneth of Salem. Wm. Kennedy and Homer Heintzelman of Washingtonville were entertained Sunday by Fred Brubaker and family.

Norman Lehman spent Sunday with John McGee and family.

A number of our young folks spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knopp.

J. J. Wiltmer recently purchased a car load of lumber from dealers at Dalton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lehman and Abram Martin and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Culp in Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McFee and son Harold of Cornersburg, Jacob Parry of Washingtonville and Miss Pearl Calvin called on James McFee, Sr., and family Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Wisler spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Max Brubaker, in Salem.

M. M. Ziegler and son recently purchased the Neihel saw-mill to saw lumber for the former's new house which will be built next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilt and son Galen of North Lima spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman and daughter Fern called on Mont Bailey and family Sunday.

Miss Mary Burkholder, teacher at Oakdale school, attended a teachers' meeting in Greenford Friday afternoon.

John Horst of North Lawrence, who was the guest of relatives and friends here, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Good were entertained by John B. Lehman and family Sunday.

Mrs. Susan Lehman, who has been ill for several weeks, is much improved.

John Wiltmer, who recently purchased a saw-mill, moved it home last week and will saw the frame for his new barn.

Abram Kreider is spending the week with relatives near Wadsworth.

ISLAND

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weaver entertained Sunday Amos Martin and family, Mrs. Louisa Horst, Miss Mary Weaver, Abram Krieder, Henry and Leah Rahl, John Weaver and sisters Edna, Carrie and Martha.

Mrs. Martha Wisler and Mrs. D. R. Lehman spent Sunday afternoon with Misses May and Gay Roller.

Paul Calvin of Hiram spent several days the first of the week with his parents here.

Mrs. Menno Brubaker is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Detrow and daughter Erma spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shewalter and son Kenneth of Salem. Wm. Kennedy and Homer Heintzelman of Washingtonville were entertained Sunday by Fred Brubaker and family.

Norman Lehman spent Sunday with John McGee and family.

A number of our young folks spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knopp.

J. J. Wiltmer recently purchased a car load of lumber from dealers at Dalton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lehman and Abram Martin and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Culp in Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McFee and son Harold of Cornersburg, Jacob Parry of Washingtonville and Miss Pearl Calvin called on James McFee, Sr., and family Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Wisler spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Max Brubaker, in Salem.

M. M. Ziegler and son recently purchased the Neihel saw-mill to saw lumber for the former's new house which will be built next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilt and son Galen of North Lima spent Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rowe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Zimmerman and daughter Fern called on Mont Bailey and family Sunday.

Miss Mary Burkholder, teacher at Oakdale school, attended a teachers' meeting in Greenford Friday afternoon.

John Horst of North Lawrence, who was the guest of relatives and friends here, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Good were entertained by John B. Lehman and family Sunday.

Mrs. Susan Lehman, who has been ill for several weeks, is much improved.

John Wiltmer, who recently purchased a saw-mill, moved it home last week and will saw the frame for his new barn.

Abram Kreider is spending the week with relatives near Wadsworth.

GEEBURG

Feb. 16.—More detective services needed here. The disappearance of a lady and a young man driving a Ford caused much excitement here. Wednesday evening neighbors and friends gathered lanterns and search was started. Later it was learned that they took a spin to a near by town.

Misses Flora and Blanche McKenzie are again employed in Youngstown. Urias Yeager was in Youngstown Friday.

Ray Leonard called on Arlie Miller's Tuesday evening.

Urias Yeager is expecting to quit the farm.

Calvin McKenzie helped A. B. Miller a few days last week.

S. S. Gauls condition remains unchanged.

Would be quite an accommodation to Geeburg people if Sheriff Jacobs would have a phone placed in his home.

Harold Seerest called on Urias Yeager Sunday.

John Rhoades spent Wednesday evening at Arlie Miller's.

Quite a number from here attended the play held in Rosemont Saturday.

John Bush and Mr. Seerest called on Mr. and Mrs. John Kealer, Sunday.

Miss Pennessie Ramsey and Mrs. Inez Grettinger spent Saturday and Sunday in Youngstown.

Miss Blanche McKenzie, Dewey Barringer, Miss Eva McKenzie and Gilbert Webster spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKenzie in Alliance.

Urias Yeager and Arlie Miller spent Sunday at H. H. Kirk's.

Louis Williams attended a party at C. H. Hine's Friday night.

CALLA

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Schaur-ferber were in Youngstown last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watt spent Sunday in Salem.

Mr. Kopp of Greenford was a caller here Saturday.

The Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Will Houts last Saturday afternoon.

Henry Meine was a Youngstown caller last Saturday.

Roads in this locality are almost impassable when not frozen.

Elmer Bush called on Raymond Cochet Sunday.

Don't forget the community entertainment to be held at the school house Friday evening, Feb. 18.

Mrs. J. M. Cochet's condition remains about the same.

Lyle Bogner is suffering with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Watt were in Canfield Tuesday.

All kinds of rubber stamps, stencils, etc. The Mahoning Dispatch.

NORTH LIMA

Feb. 16.—A "try out" contest was held here Tuesday evening, between the two literary societies of the local school to determine who should represent the school in the county literary contest which will be an event of March 4. Those winning in the four divisions of the contest were: Essay, Miss Anna Herman; short story, Miss Helen Hahn; reading, Miss Daisy Wolfgang; oration, Edward Weller. The county contest will be held in four different villages of the county, and it is probable North Lima will get one division this year.

A special foreign mission program will be rendered next Sunday morning in Mount Olivet Reformed church, during the hour for worship.

The annual "Day of Prayer" of the United Council of Women's Missionary Societies will be observed in Mount Olivet church next Friday afternoon with a prayer service at 2. A similar service was held in the Evangelical church Sunday morning.

Revival services will begin about the last Sunday in the month in the Evangelical church. The pastor will be assisted by a well known evangelist from Kentucky.

Rev. G. Keller Rubright of Minneapolis, Minn., president of the North-west Synod of the United Lutheran church, was a guest of Rev. J. H. Graf and family. He held Thursday evening service in Good Hope church with a short address.

Regular services are announced for Sunday, Feb. 20, in Good Hope Lutheran church, at 8:30 and 2:30.

Rev. J. H. Graf was in Erie, Pa., one day last week.

A program of exceptional interest will be given at the meeting of the North Lima grange this week. All members contributing to the program will choose their own parts, and thus it will make a surprise program. A debate is promised, in which R. E. Elser, C. H. Welsh, Roy Miner and John Coder will take part.

Miss Mary Faust has returned from Youngstown where she was employed several months.

Mrs. Mary Smith has returned home to Cleveland after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. S. Bruce.

Mrs. E. R. Wood is spending some time in the county, Pa., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stakebeck and family who leave this week for their new home in Indianapolis.

Word from Mrs. J. V. Chambers, who with the doctor is wintering at Sanford, Fla., is that they are well and having fine warm weather.

Mather Hilburn, reader and impersonator, gave an evening of rare pleasure to those who were fortunate enough to hear him in the auditorium Thursday night. His entertainment is said to have been one of the best of the kind ever given here.

Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans, a lecturer of national fame, will speak here on the evening of Feb. 26, as the fourth number of the county course.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Haxel spent Sunday in New Brighton, Pa., where they attended the funeral of a relative.

J. W. Roelzel and family of Youngstown were visitors Sunday at J. E. Glenn's.

Fred Stafford of Youngstown spent Sunday with his brother, Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Coy announce a prayer service in their home this evening. These neighborhood weekly prayer services are giving a great deal of interest, and each week the attendance increases.

Mrs. John Rohrer and Mrs. Jay Glenn entertained the Searchlight Club Tuesday in the home of the former.

Lenten services will be held Thursday evening in Good Hope Lutheran church. The subject of the meditation is "A New Commandment."

Mrs. Will Heintzelman of Boardman called Saturday at Rev. J. H. Graf's.

Miss Lizzie Miller was severely scalded when a pan of boiling water splashed over her recently. She is now recovering but not able to be about.

Lewis M. Toot was in Pittsburgh last Thursday.

Workers are stringing wire for the new high tension line of the Ohio Pennsylvania Electric Co. which goes through this village from Youngstown to Columbiana. Local people hope for electric service in the near future.

Will Harold and family of Columbiana were Sunday visitors at J. N. Lesh's.

MARQUIS

Feb. 16.—Frank Charleton was in Canfield Monday.

Mrs. Charles Miskell and daughter Marion, Mrs. Archy Culp and daughter Edythe, Mrs. Louis Hoffmann and Miss Dorothy Schaaf are among those who attended the revival meetings at the Calla church.

Dr. C. H. Campbell was here from Canfield Tuesday.

Frank Rhodes of Gettysburg spent Saturday here.

Allen Kohler was in Canfield Tuesday.

E. W. Coy underwent an operation in the Youngstown city hospital Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brown spent Monday evening at Louis Hoffmann's.

Nance Hoffmann and Esther Coy were able to start to school Monday.

Phares Miskell on Tuesday received a number of beautiful post cards from school-mates.

Ray Beard and Todd Cool were in Columbiana Saturday.

Cora W. D. Coy of Youngstown and J. H. Schurrnberger of Austintown were here Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Paulin of Canfield this week visited her daughter, Mrs. Frank Charleton, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Paulin were in Youngstown Tuesday.

Lawrence Hoffman spent Friday and Saturday in Salem.

Miss Hazel Knauf has returned home from Gettysburg.

A. T. Hendricks and son Wright were in Canfield Tuesday.

Wm. Yockevitch and wife entertained relatives from Youngstown Sunday.

Theo. Hoffman of Greenford was a caller here the first of the week.

J. W. and W. H. Coy were in Youngstown several days this week.

Mrs. Louis Hoffmann did sewing for Mrs. Tena Collier one day last week.

Subscribe to The Dispatch

ELLSWORTH

Feb. 16.—Miss Pauline Schafer returned home Sunday after spending a few days in Warren with relatives and friends.

Revival meetings began at Rosemont Sunday evening.

Ray Galt has rented the John Keeler farm and will take possession of same April 1.

Several from here attended the play given in Rosemont Saturday evening by Harry Negrotto and home talent.

Mr. and Mrs. John Owen and son Arnold of Youngstown called here Sunday afternoon.

Marian Brown is on the sick list. Friends here are glad to learn that Mrs. Elsie Shrader, who is in St. Elizabeth's hospital, Youngstown, is getting along nicely.

Grangers gave a pie social Monday evening. All had a fine time.

Louis Gretsinger, James Brown and Alfred Sauer went to Youngstown Monday to serve as jurors.

Mrs. Leo Meyer and Mrs. Jennie Rull of Salem spent a few days here last week with their sister, Mrs. John Schafer.

Penna grange will meet here Saturday, Feb. 26. Ladies will serve the dinner. All members are urged to be present.

Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, Dublin degree team will confer the third and fourth degrees on several members here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schafer and son Wilbur were in Youngstown one day last week.

Mrs. Lydia Gretsinger has returned home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Crum and son Earlton spent Sunday in Rosemont.

There will be preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday morning.

Elizabeth Schafer is working in the grange at Austintown.

Clyde Keslar was here from Youngstown over Sunday.

Walter Miller was in Massillon one day last week.

Cliff Feltz girls spent Saturday evening with Elizabeth Reslar, Thalia Hammond was hostess.

Young People's Society met Friday evening at the home of Mary Crook.

The Camogoochee Camp Fire was entertained at a dinner party last Saturday evening at the home of Elizabeth Kessler. Those present were Mrs. Ethel Bowman, Misses Lenice Mosser, Frances Barringer, Mary Crook, Leah Belle Kirkwood, Laura Gordon, Messrs. Charley Reslar, Hugh Bowman and Alfred and Mrs. Frank Reslar. The hostesses were Thalia Hammond and Elizabeth Reslar. A ceremony meeting of the Camp Fire was a feature.

NORTH JACKSON

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Golt of Warren were here over Sunday.

Ed Goldner, who has been suffering some time with a carbuncle, is feeling much better.

Mrs. Wm. Aldridge was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Flick attended the 85th birthday anniversary of their aunt, Mrs. Maria Eastman in Canfield last week.

Frank Bingham of Mineral Ridge called here Tuesday morning.

Monroe Russell is here from Youngstown.

George Russell is here from Youngstown.

George Russell is able to be out after being confined to the house by sickness.

Mrs. Isa Witherstone and son Howard are spending several days with Youngstown relatives.

Thelma Reebel is spending some time here with her parents.

Mrs. Henry Zevinger and Howard Witherstone were in the hospital last week.

M. Minter was able to resume his duties as teacher in the Boardman school this week after an illness of several days at his home in this place.

Last Sunday Mrs. Maria Eastman, surrounded by her children, grand children and other relatives, celebrated her 84th birthday anniversary at her home on West Main street. An elaborate dinner was a pleasing feature of the occasion. Mrs. Eastman is unusually active for one of her years and was in exceptionally fine fettle Sunday, making it very pleasant for her guests. She was the recipient of numerous appropriate gifts which she greatly appreciated.

The Canfield man who hired his team to two Youngstown men for $1 to haul a load of elder from Ellsworth to the cemetery, a short time since, found the transaction unprofitable when the men got mixed up with the law and Sheriff Morris took them into custody. If cost the Canfielder about $20 to get back his team.

SHILLINGS MILL

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Akron were week end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilson.

Stewart Burkey was a Saturday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jolly.

Date Wilson and family were Sunday visitors at John Wilson's.

James Allen is visiting Jake Ashler and family.

Harry Burkey and family and Elgie Newell were Sunday dinner guests of A. H. Burkey and family.

Mr. Finster, superintendent of the children's home in Warren, was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boyle one day last week and released James Allen who had been living at Boyle's.

W. I. Hillis and family and Mrs. Barba Myers were Sunday dinner guests of John Myers and wife in their home at Berlin Center.

W. A. Beahm and niece, Miss Nesbitt, of Youngstown were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers.

Will Jolly, A. H. Burkey and George Hillis and son Robert were in Berlin Center Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wilson and daughter, Grace, and Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of Akron called on Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson Saturday evening.

Roy Hillis and Charlie Barringer went to Youngstown Monday to bring F. K. Eckenrode home. He was a patient in St. Elizabeth's hospital the last two weeks.

BERLIN CENTER

Feb. 16.—Ray Butler was a Youngstown visitor Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kline, E. J. Cronick and John Ormsby were in Youngstown Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weiden have moved in I. J. Smith's house on North street.

Clyde Shilling and family spent Sunday at Wm. Shilling's.

Mrs. E. T. Rakestraw spent Monday with her parents in Alliance.

The farm of the late Samuel Foulk west of the station has been sold to a Swiss family, who will take possession at once.

Mrs. Elizabeth Barringer of Rosemont spent several days last week with her son here.

Miss Alice Clugston is recovering from an attack of grippe.

Rev. Caven was in Alliance Monday forenoon.

Thompson, aged 61 years, died suddenly from apoplexy Friday, Feb. 11, at his home in Patmos. Mr. Thompson spent the greater part of his life in Berlin township where he had many friends. His first wife was Margaret King of this place who died several years ago. He later married Mrs. Susan Bardo Aikens who survives. Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church in Berlin Center where he was a member, Monday at 2:30, conducted by Rev. Caven. Interment in the village cemetery.

Mrs. L. E. Hawkins' Sunday school class was entertained by Miss Mabel Penny at the home of Mrs. George Reed Saturday afternoon.

Attendance at the M. E. Sunday school Sunday morning was 124, much interest being shown in the service.

G. O. Eckis of Alliance called here last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hawn went to Cleveland to spend a week with relatives.

Mrs. L. E. Hawkins very pleasantly entertained the Fortnightly Club Wednesday evening.

School medals were awarded last Thursday as follows: First and second grades, Donald Rakestraw; third and fourth, Wilbur Paxton; fourth and fifth, Viva Paxton, seventh and eighth, Helen Shively; high school, Helen Brown.

Telephone dissatisfaction continues because phones have been removed from a considerable number of homes on account of increased rates and some subscribers feel that they cannot now talk to as many of their neighbors as they should be able to.

TURNER STREET

Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn DeCamp and two sons of Youngstown called at W. S. Rhodes' Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Ewing were in Canfield Monday.

Harry Kline of Rosemont called on H. E. Brobst and family, Thursday.

Nora Kennedy visited at T. M. Thomas' Monday.

Luther Brobst of Youngstown spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brobst.

C. F. Broome was in North Lima Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Ewing went to Garrettsville Wednesday evening to attend the golden wedding of the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Poore.

Mrs. Elmer Brobst and daughters, Maxine and Vonna and sons Luther, Wilford and Sidney attended a birthday dinner given for the former's mother, Mrs. A. Eastman, of Canfield, Sunday.

Thomas Kennedy has been confined to his bed for the past week on account of sickness.

Jeonette Blanches called on Mrs. Bortmas, Mrs. Corli, Mrs. Kimmel and Mrs. McMillon of Ohio's Crossing Monday afternoon.

Mrs. John Brown is still indisposed.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Flynn of Youngstown spent Sunday night at T. J. Brick's.

Turner Street gypsum-clay water filled roads have been in an ill humor lately and several automobiles which tried to negotiate them required the aid of horses to get across.

Although an open winter not a blue bird was seen. The town robin seen on Jan. 21, 25, 26 and 30th has not been seen since.

WEST AUSTINTOWN

Feb. 16.—Did you receive a Valentine?

The county home demonstrating agent, Miss Osburn, will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Wilcox, Friday, Feb. 25 at 1 o'clock. Everyone interested in sewing is cordially invited.

C. A. McMahon and R. O'Rourke were in Salem the other day.

Bert and John Pennell, with their families, of Youngstown, visited the former's mother several days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Rourke and son Harold and W. Ohl were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McMahon of Ohio's Crossing.

Abner Williams had a collarbone fractured in an auto accident a few days since.

Mr. Williams was taken to a hospital in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wenger presented a supposed cousin of the former, Miss Ray of Dalton, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J.